The Honorable Paul H. Douglas
Chairman, Joint Economic Committee of the Congress
The United States Senate
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Chairman:

In response to your request of 12 October, the Central Intelligence Agency will be pleased to assist the Joint Economic Committee in up-dating its survey on the performance of the Soviet economy.

As in the past, our contributions to the survey will be unclassified. I also request that the Central Intelligence Agency not be identified as the source of information furnished the Joint Committee. As previously, [redacted] will be the Agency action officer for the project.

Sincerely,

John A. McCone
Director
